

We need your help to find arguments for Fysikum!

För att/To + argument = formulering

Argument is what we want to communicate, for example a subject, field, institution or more general

You can choose more than one argument, with contrast one another and create dynamic. You can combine something rational with something emotional, philosophical or concrete.

