

Authorship norms, borderline plagiarism & publication ethics

In this seminar issues such as questionable authorship norms, plagiarism, self-plagiarism and other ethical grey areas in academic publishing will be discussed. Differences between research disciplines will be highlighted, as well as discrepancies between guidelines and culture in research publishing.

Speaker: Gert Helgesson, professor in medical ethics, Karolinska Institutet

► Time and place: 19 March 14.00 – 16.00, Nordenskiöldsalen, Geovetenskapens hus.
